Dear Terry:

I am thrilled at the news that you will be traveling with George Gurganus this summer. His world evangelism tour is the kind of thing that I believe you would really profit from, and also would provide you many opportunities to help others. I deeply respect your decision to go and pray that God will richly bless you in it.

Unfortunately, I am presently involved in raising funds for four other people who are making similar trips this summer. Also, as you may already know, my family and I are moving from Abilene by the First of June. This means that I will not have time to help raise any funds for your trip, even though I would like to do so.

At this point I would not know of any suggestions to make regarding this, other than your continued efforts to contact those who know you and whom you know.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Mr. Chalk:

My name is Terry Childers. I am a member of the Treadway congregation here in Abilene. I have had the pleasure of meeting you on several occasions that you visited with our congregation.

After talking with George Gurganus, he suggested that I contact you in my attempt to raise $1,100 to make a World Evangelism Tour with him this summer. Our tour will take us to Europe and Asia. At the present I have committed from my home congregation and other interested individuals $500.

As you can see I am just about half way to my goal. I need your help in reaching my goal of $1,100. I can use your help and influence with fellow christians who share the foresight and need of spreading the gospel of Christ throughout the world. If you could contact or suggest contacts for me I would be glad to hear from you.

Thank you very much for your time and help.

Sincerely,

Terry Childers
